

THE WHOLEREN APPROACH

Fuelled by growth in emerging markets such as China and an increase in competition on a global scale, the need for executive education is now higher than ever. In an increasingly global world, WholeRen understands that corporate training in conjunction with cultural training is what the companies of today need and works closely with partnered U.S. institutions to provide top-quality holistic executive learning programs for rising international businesses.

WORK WITH WHOLEREN

WholeRen identifies emerging businesses in China and brings their executives to the U.S. for higher education training programs with our educational partners. We work closely with our educational partners to help them foster international connections, establish an influential alumni network, and develop prestigious international programs.

THE WHOLEREN LEARNING PROCESS

Identifying Program Goals: Our multinational and multicultural organization is uniquely suited to identify the needs of our international and educational partners.

Developing a Plan: Once we gauge the needs and expectations of our partners, we develop a plan specifically focused on helping them to achieve their goals.

Educating Future Leaders: After the plan has been laid out, we work with our partners to ensure that the education provided is in line with our training objectives.

Assessing Training Outcomes: Throughout the program, we continually assess its strengths and weaknesses in an effort to provide continuous improvement as the program progresses.
